DESCRIPTION

The office space in Croydon's Landsdowne Road is positioned in one of the most modern and prominent buildings in central Croydon. Occupying two floors, the offices are attractive and comfortable with some backing on to a stunning atrium. With a stylish glass-fronted entrance, the lobby features sculpture and artwork by local artists, creating a stimulating and dynamic environment. Located in the main business district, neighbours include consultancy firms and banks as well as retail businesses and hotels. Croydon is London's third main central business district, and south London's main business centre. Well-served by transport links, it is also the second-largest shopping area in the south east of England with a wide range of amenities coupled with open green spaces.
