DESCRIPTION

1 Cornhill is a truly iconic City landmark and a world class address offering prestigious office space, virtual office services and meeting rooms. The building boasts a rich history that dates back to Roman times and an address that is widely recognised to this day. Set above Bank station, this Grade II listed building represents the finest City architecture, with a classic domed roof and an exterior built in typical Portland stone. Many of the newly refurbished serviced offices within the building overlook the Bank of England and the Royal Exchange. The spectacular Dome Room can host meetings of up to 24 delegates and offers outstanding city views. 1 Cornhill also benefits from a magnificent Club Lounge, set in the original banking hall, which provides a stunning, yet informal area to meet and relax.

LOCATION

One of the four trophy buildings on Bank Junction alongside The Bank of England, The Royal Exchange and Mansion House with spectacular City views of the major financial district.

Transport Bank station: Central, Northern, Waterloo & City lines
Liverpool Street station for National Rail Network and London Underground services
London Bridge station is a short taxi journey away
