DESCRIPTION

Cavendish Square is located one block behind Oxford Street, just a short walk away from Oxford Circus tube station providing direct access to the Central, Victoria and Bakerloo lines. Oxford Street is home to some of the world's most famous brands' flagship stores, including Selfridges, and is a buzzing location at which to base your business. The West End's theatre district is located close by, as well as Noho's famous bars and restaurants. Cavendish Square itself is a formal London square, laid out around a circular garden, popular with sunbathers during the summer. An underground car park is conveniently located directly below the square. Surrounded by shops, bars and restaurants there is no better location for your business.
