DESCRIPTION

These serviced offices at 40 Bank Street are situated in a fantastic location in Canary Wharf. The building is over 150 metres high and has a range of other tenants such as Shell and ANZ Bank.

There are a many of different offices available to suit all size and types of companies, from start up to established business' project space. There are different sized conference and meeting rooms available to hire by the hour, half day and full day as well as break out space for more informal meetings.

There is 24 hour access to the building which is crucial to those working international hours and other amenities such as bike racks and showers.

LOCATION

These fantastic serviced offices at 40 Bank Street are moments from Canary Wharf underground station (Jubilee and DLR) and Heron Keys DLR. Being one of London's two major financial centres, Canary Wharf is a superb place to base your business. It's home to the world or European headquarters of some of the worlds largest Banks such as HSBC, JP Morgan and Barclays due to its excellent transport links and cheaper rents than in the City of London.

Due to the sheer amount of office space and workers who converge on the E14 postcode during the working week the local amenities are second to none. Renown restaurants such as Plateau, Iberica and Sri Nam are all in the area as many of the more common chains. Due to the amount of sky scrapers there are many bars with spectacular views in Canary wharf such as The Attic as Pan Peninsular which looks over the rest of E14 and will impress any client.
