DESCRIPTION

These serviced offices have been recently refurbished to a high standard whilst still keeping the original features. The offices are light and airy and have a video intercom entry system for easy access even when working late. They come fully furnished although they can also be taken without furniture if you would prefer. The building has high speed internet already installed so moving in is very easy and can be done at short notice.

LOCATION

These serviced offices are in a great location only a couple of minutes from Exmouth Market around 10 minutes to King Cross which has excellent transport links across the UK and mainland Europe.
